Petitioners father Narsin maiya Kandee over charge under Mr Anil Coari Orders and ordered Enquiry after leave granted him.

× No. 513 of 3rd Nov 1883.

In reply to Mr Dy Comrs (2) Order requiring whether Mr Kaycampatta. Coar raises any objection to the Petitioner doing the work of the Anil Coar village (3) submits —

(2). 6/Jan 91 No. 778.

(3) 5.3.91 No. 156

The Kayam pattadars (Joshi Khane Kayam. Kay Ccr. Mysore) reply that if the Petitioner agrees to pay the amount Rs 630/- of the dance obtained against his father and deposits one years Jumabandi, there would be no objection to his doing the work.

2. The Karnbhoj (Petn) has been doing the work of the Govt village Soorlalli & Handoor-
-lalli without the grum-plaint. No rules appear to have been framed for requiring one years Jamabandi as deposit. If the Karnbhoj does not do his work properly he will render himself
liable to punishment.

That he (Patel)
does not consider the Manyadari system to be correct as it is a Hakdari work.

The Manyadar
appears to say as he does in view to receive the decree
money.

Petr Govt. (M Ramkal Rao the required Ramanna (Petn) was willing to deposit one years

3 Jamabandi.

The Petitioner stated before the Amildar -

The Jamabandi of the 2 Govt villages was Rs 1500/.

That he had been doing the work of the villages for 5 or 6 years

That the Mamlatdar required the deposit being given he would give personal security

Further on the Patel says -

There is no reason for him to give any security - the money collected would remain with the Patel.

What he (Petitioner) has to do with accounts or not.

The Amildar forwarded the above -

Lala Sajan Mewari (wife of Niranjan Das) filed his Petition
stating Niranjan Das for the recovery of Rs: 185 " 15 " 5 and obtained a decree for the amount and Costs: the decree was on account of his money embezzled by Petn's father. (vide Niranjan Das Bundoan
Report No: 265 of 1st: July 1887.)

The Petitioner's father before the Bundoan on the above date stated that -

(1) he did not misappropriate the money.

(2) there were arrears due by the Estate but that the Govt when he was sick & got a list taken by their underta[illegible]

to pay the amount due as per bill
two months. ()

(3). That he was hereby ordered to take back on account of item.

(4) That the decree was on account of such money.

(5) That he was to pay to applicant against the decree.

March 1961 referred to above at the commencement of this memo dated
that the Bailiff appears to object to the Petitioner taking up the duty appointed with a view
recover the decree money in an indirect manner.
The reply referred to in para 3 of the memo is signed
by Miss Ray Rao.

By Cheque in his order No: 10 of 6.4.91
issued to above mentd Asker Ali Mridha
& the Petitioner was failing to deposit
one years Jamabandi only. Nothing was said about the decree
money.

From the above the amount embezzled
by Petitioners father does not appear to have been made good.

The Dy Comrs report on the above point has been received & put up with this

It is to the effect that the Petitioner Ramanna has no objection to the money embezzled by his father being made good by the sale of his father's property, and if Govt so order, also from the emoluments attached to the Shanbhogi

Dated 2nd April 1892
No 1191.

x (part 1)

Meanwhile Ramanna sends in another petition dated 24th March 1892 It is to the effect that —

(1) the Petitioner can be depended upon & entrusted with the work of the Kanyanguttu village (Kanivanalli) also is evident from the fact of his managing the work of other Govt. villages

(2) that his father borrowed no money from the Kanyanguttuvars

3

3 When his father was sick a 'Baki Kaifi' (list of arrears) was taken under his father's signature. An Ex parte decree was obtained against his father. He amount may be recovered according to law. There is no connection between a 'Bakaya' Govt Account-ment and the decree money. A portion of the Petitioner's emoluments may be withheld. The Petitioner begs that a day of hearing may be fixed when he would represent his case fully.

Appn no 82 of 1891-92

Appt

Ramanna
of Surahalli
Nanjangud Taluq

Respt

Nanjarayappa &c. represented by his adopted Subbanna.

Appt's father Narasimha was the Shanbhog of Surahalli - a Nanjangud
Nanjangud village held by the Respt.

He absconded in 1883, but when he returned in 1886, the Respt refused to allow him to resume office as he embezzled certain collections made in the village. He appealed to the D.C. who refused to interfere in the matter in 1887. He died in 1890. Appt now claims the office. — The Respt is willing to give him the office if he pays the money embezzled by his father & furnishes security for his good behaviour. —

The appellant's father admitted in writing that he embezzled No 485 & promised to repay pay the money, but he having failed to do so, the Respt obtained a Decree against him

for that amount,
which remains unsecured, apparently for want of assets.—

Appts contention
is that there is no connection between the Decree & the office which is hereditary & that the appointment should be given to him.
— The Govt do not consider the contention to be valid. He must make good the money embezzled by his father: Until then, he cannot be allowed to claim the office. The appeal is dismissed.

Appeal No. 82 of 1892

Appellant. Vs. Respondent.

Ramanna of Lakshmipuram, Nanjangud Taluk, Mysore district.

Nanjaraja Urs, represented by Mr. A. N. Lakshmana.

Decision, dated 22nd N. 92.

Appellant's father Ramanna was the Shanbhog of Lakshmanapura, a Kayamganiha village under the Nanjangud Taluk. He took leave in 1883, but when he returned in 1886 the Respondent refused to allow him to resume his duties as he embezzled certain collections made in the village. He applied to the Deputy Commissioner, who refused to interfere in the matter, in 1889. He died in 1890. Appellant now claims the office. The Respondent is willing to give him the office if he pays the money embezzled by his father, Lakshmana [illegible] for his good behaviour.

2. The Applicant's letter admitted in writing that he embezzled Rs 180/- and promised to pay the money, but he having failed to do so, the Respdt obtained a decree against him for that amount, which remains unexecuted, apparently for want of assets.

3. Applt's contention is that there is no connection between the decree and the office which is hereditary, and that the appointment should be given to him. The Govt do not consider the contention to be valid. He must make good the money embezzled by his father. Until then he cannot be allowed to claim the office. The appeal is dismissed.
